

President's Message

Lisa Hedin

Greetings AAUW Hastings members! Our program and business year continues to move right along. In the face of some pretty significant challenges and losses our Branch is having an interesting and engaging program year; held a low-key but very successful fundraising campaign; continues monthly book group discussions; figured out how to have coffee together; shares hospitality with occasional mailings; is providing scholarships to numerous college women to attend NCCWSL 2021, and is taking our brains if not our bodies on Gad-About adventures! Give yourself a pat on the back.

Just as the Hastings Branch has continued to be active in this pandemic year, so has AAUW National. Programs were moved on line and 35 webinars reached more than 30,000 people; work with Historically Black Colleges and Universities and other minority serving institutions was ramped up and AAUW's Start Smart is now offered at 29 such institutions; and AAUW activists sent 62,400 letters to elected officials calling for action on AAUW priorities in 2020. To see more of the AAUW National Year in Review go to <https://www.aauw.org/about/years-in-review/2020-review/>

Stay well, take care of each other, and count your blessings.

Building Remembrance For Reconciliation (BR4R)

The first step towards a healthy relationship among all peoples is learning about, speaking, and hearing the truth of our history. In honoring February as Black History Month, AAUW is excited to have as our guest speakers, for our program, members of Building Remembrance for Reconciliation (BR4R). BR4R is a group of Minneapolis and Hastings residents dedicated to learning about and memorializing the history of African American settlers in Hastings, Minnesota.

The presentation will cover the history of early Black settlers in Hastings with a focus on the Wallace and Curry families. Greg McMoore and James Curry are direct descendants of the same ancestor Israel Dungeon and will share the history of their family from Virginia to Minnesota to South Minneapolis.

Our speakers:

James Curry Producer, director, writer, editor and educator James Curry has been active in filmmaking for over 30 years. Educated at Full Sail, The American Film Institute and the Minnesota School of Business, he earned his MFA in Film from the Vermont College of Fine Arts. He has worked on numerous projects in Los Angeles and Minneapolis ranging from trailers, commercials and music videos as well as broadcast for NBC, FOX and currently the morning news for KSTP. Clients include documentary work for Prince. His short film Westbound was selected for the 2016 New York Short Film Festival, the Twin Cities Black Film Festival and the Minneapolis Saint Paul International Film Festival. His last documentary Masterjam was the focus of a mental health panel convened at the 2019 Denton Black Film Festival and won Best Documentary at the 2018 Twin Cities Black Film Festival. In 2021 he was awarded the Jerome Hill Artist Fellowship for Film. He continues to teach film and production at Augsburg University. He is one of the founders of BR4R (Building Remembrance for Reconciliation) with whom he is collaborating with its members on documenting two pioneering Black families of Hastings, the Curry and Wallace families of whom he is a descendant.

Heidi Langenfeld Heidi Langenfeld is currently a volunteer at the Pioneer Room in Hastings. Her interest in the history of Blacks in Hastings began in 2006 while researching George Washington Daniels. Daniels was born a slave in Georgia. He served in the Civil War with William LeDuc, who hired him to bring his horses to Hastings in 1865 and worked on the LeDuc farms from 1865 to 1879. Curious whether there were other Blacks in Hastings when George arrived here led Heidi to start a research project that continues today.

Greg McMoore Since the mid 1860's Greg McMoore and his family have called Minnesota home. After graduating from Macalester College, Mr. McMoore continued his studies at Howard and George Washington University in Washington, D.C. Mr. McMoore has trained, developed programming and consulted in the fields of race, class and culture in Minnesota, The U.S. and internationally. Now retired, Greg and his family currently reside in south Minneapolis where his Grandmother Elsie Wallace came as a young woman. His Great Great Grandparents, John and Nancy Wallace lived first in Lakeville, and then moved to Hastings where they raised their children.

Coffee and Conversation

Bring your coffee, tea, or water and catch up with other AAUW Hastings members. This will just be a time to visit with friends who we haven't been able to see for a while. There will be no formal programming. The intent is to keep the conversation groups small. Breakout rooms will be used to keep conversations to 4-8 people at a time.

Treasurer's Report

Mary Charlson

For the month of January a check was written in the amount of $2,500 to Amy Roach our recipient of the local AAUW scholarship. Our checking account balance as of January 31, 2021 is $3,549.13.

Book Club

Shirley Tammen

On February 8, at 1:30 on zoom the book group will be discussing The Book Charmer by Karen Hawkins. Hawkins describes a small, sleepy southern town whose population is slowly decreasing until a new family moves to town enabling two fiercely independent women to experience the magic of books.

American Dirt by Jeanine Cummins will be our Monday, March 8, 1:30 selection on zoom. This fast moving novel tells of the ordeal of a Mexican woman who had to leave behind her life and escape as an undocumented immigrant to the U.S. with her son.

If You Ask Me. Essential Advice From Eleanor Roosevelt edited by Mary Jo Binker was chosen as our Monday, April 12, 1:30 selection. In 1941 Eleanor Roosevelt embarked on a new career as an advice columnist. Published for 22 year in Ladies Home Journal, the column covered everything from war and politics to love and marriage and popular culture. Each chapter is prefaced with issues then and now.

Once again, I urge members to check websites of organizations. If you are looking for interesting entertainment, check out YouTube. There is such an abundance of quality music offered on that media.

Hasting Arts Center is holding a fundraiser by selling some handsome sweatshirts at only $20 per shirt. Check the website for a picture and order by calling or emailing.

Dakota County Libraries are sponsoring several free events during the month. Register today at their website. These Zoom events run from 2-3:45 pm.

February 9 - Enjoying Memories with Writing

February 16- Flower Collage

February 23 - Seed Art

At the end of the TWIG, you will find a flyer with more details about the conference, and an application form which you may copy and give out to prospective scholarship recipients. We have also sent an article to the Hastings Journal requesting inclusion in the Thursday editions for the next 3 weeks. Please note that we set a February 15th deadline for all applications.

If you have any questions, please contact Gail Glashan, or any member of the committee: Pat Powers, Ann Skoglund, and Jan Junkman. We appreciate your help. This is a great opportunity to provide many young women in our area with a chance to participate in a world-class leadership conference. We are excited that the Hastings Branch may be able to register up to ten women to participate in the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders 2021.

NCCSWL

Gail Glashan

In the last issue of the Twig, we told you that Sophia Sanchez was planning to attend the May 25-26 NCCWSL conference in Washington D.C. this year.

Sophia was the recipient of our NCCWSL scholarship for 2020, but because the conference was cancelled due to the pandemic, we extended the scholarship to her, again, for 2021. However, due to the continuation of the pandemic, the conference will only be held virtually this year. Therefore, the $1000 scholarship that we were planning to use to send our recipient to Washington D.C. is no longer appropriate. This money is in our budget and was a grant from AAUW MN, to be used only for NCCWSL scholarships. Because the conference is virtual, the registration is only $95. Considering the reduced fee, we anticipate registering 9 more qualified recipients for the virtual conference this year. And, we would love your help in spreading the good news to family and friends to find more young women interested in applying for the scholarship.

50th Anniversary Gala

Glenda Shnirring

BREAKING NEWS!!
50TH ANNIVERSARY GALA MOVED TO SEPTEMBER 27

Covid-19 continues to impact our Branch calendar. Tracing back, we were to have the 50th anniversary gala of the Hastings Branch in April of 2020. Due to Covid, we cautiously thought we could perhaps have the gala in September of 2020. Next, we anticipated that certainly we could have it in April of 2021. Well, here we are seeing clearly that even that date would be too soon to safely bring you, the members, to an in-person event.

At the recent February 1, Branch board meeting it was decided to announce that the celebratory 50th Branch anniversary gala will take place on September 27, 2021, at the Hastings Public House. While even this date can seem in question for some, we are expecting the membership will have been immunized and enough time will have passed for everyone to feel comfortable and more than ready to greet and meet one another with emotions at their peak. Put this breaking news on your calendars now and start thinking about what you'll wear at AAUW's fall of 2021, 50th Anniversary gala.

Secretary

Arlene Wellemeyer

Minutes - January 25, 2021 AAUW Meeting - Hastings Branch (Zoom)

1. Members (approximately 33) joined the meeting by 6:30 pm and were invited to share their chili tips. President Lisa Hedin called the meeting to order at 6:43 pm. Her greeting emphasized the Spring voting available on the AAUW National website [aauw.org], specifically on public policy for the next two years, as well as the education requirement for AAUW membership. She urged members to engage and use these opportunities to express their views.
2. The minutes of the November business meeting were approved as printed in the December TWIG. Motion: Kathy O'Keefe; second: Pat Schultz.
3. The Treasurer's Report (November/December, 2020) was approved as emailed. (Motion: Betty Hoeschen; Second: Glenda Schnirring). Mary Charlson reported a current checkbook balance of $6,049.13.

4. Committee Reports

Membership: Jackie Rigelman reported one new member (Nicole Sindelar).

Program: Tina Folch noted that the February presentation will be Building Remembrance for Reconciliation (BR4R), formerly known as Bridges. The 50th Anniversary of the Hastings Branch will be discussed at the February Board meeting, whether or not to plan an in-person event in April. See TWIG for further information on this.

Fundraising: Jackie Rigelman reported that her working group on alternative fundraisers has met and will present ideas to the Board at the February meeting. See the TWIG for further information on this also.

Public Policy: Pat Powers reiterated the opportunity to vote on AAUW National public policy and bylaw changes before February 5. It was stressed that 5% national membership participation rate is required to pass any change, thus it is important than local branches respond. Pat also noted that AAUW National has joined with like-minded organizations in taking a public stance against the riot in the U.S. Capitol on January 6.

Gad-Abouts: Margaret Goderstad and Lisa Hedin announced some new activities for February and March: (1) A virtual tour of the Russian Museum of Art in Minneapolis on February 2, 2pm; (2) a livestreamed concert by the Minnesota Orchestra on March 4, 7pm; (3) additional Coffees and Conversation (more info in TWIG).

Book Club and Hastings Reads: Shirley Tammen noted the next Book Club discussion (Zoom) will be on February 8.

All details on the Book Club meetings, authors visits, etc. can be found on Facebook or Dakota County Libraries websites.

AAUW Funds: Glenda Schnirring asked if any members are interested in serving on the selection committee for the annual Hastings High School scholarship award. Kathy O'Keefe expressed interest.

NCCWSL: Jan Junkman has written a piece for the Hastings Journal on the NCCWSL award(s). The May 25-26 meeting this year will be a virtual meeting with a registration fee of $95. Therefore, it is hoped that nine additional awards can be made, in addition to the one already committed for Sonja Sanchez. Members are encouraged to make these NCCWSL awards known to eligible college women among their family, friends and acquaintances.

Community: Margaret Goderstad noted the Hastings Art Center is again offering Coffee Concerts and reminded members to check the HAS website frequently.

Diversity: Lisa Hedin noted the equity focus of the Hastings Reads program this year. Also, ISD 200 has developed an equity policy that will receive a first reading at the next meeting of board. The equity policy is available on the ISD 200 website, and members are encouraged to review it.

5. Pat Powers moved to adjourn the meeting. Tina Folch seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 7:24 pm.

The evening's presentation followed at 7:30 pm. Margaret Anderson Kelliher spoke to us on how she became involved in Minnesota State Government, her decisions on running for public office, her leadership role as Speaker of the House, and her current position as Commissioner of Transportation. In the question and answer period, members raised the issue of Hastings being a "public transportation desert" and urged Commissioner Kelliher to keep our city in mind as she leads the State's planning for improved public transportation. Attendance: (approximately 40).

National Conference for College Women Student Leaders 2021

Leadership for Today and Tomorrow!

NCCWSL will be fully virtual, Tuesday, May 25, and Wednesday, May 26, 2021.

We invite you to apply for a NCCWSL scholarship to the nation's premier virtual leadership event! The American Association of University Women (AAUW) Hastings Branch announces this exciting opportunity for Hastings area sophomore or junior female college students to attend the virtual National Conference for College Women Student Leaders aka NCCWSL. The scholarship covers the cost of registration, $95.00. 10 scholarships are available.

You will join hundreds of college women from around the country for two days of virtual leadership training, inspiration, incredible speakers, awardees and networking. NCCWSL offers skill-building workshops and educational panels that are designed to challenge and inspire you to make an impact on your campus and in your community long after you leave the conference.

Workshops are divided among the following leadership objectives.

- Leadership development: Develop and strengthen a leadership narrative through voice, skill set, and mind-set.
- Professional development: Build a professional tool kit for postgraduate life.
- Activism: Know the how, why, and when to take action.
- Women's issues: Gain a better understanding of issues and policies affecting women and of AAUW's role in empowering women.
- Identity and diversity: Own one's personal identity and role in increasing and supporting diverse voices.

Apply today!

The deadline for completed applications is Monday, February 15, 2021.
