

President’s Message

Lisa Hedin

Greeting AAUW Hastings Members. Welcome to Women’s History Month! Check out this link to the AAUW National website celebrating the members, fellows and award winners. On the front page of the website is a recognition of AAUW CEO Gloria Blackwell as one of Diverse Issues in Higher Education top 40 Women leaders, as well as a recording of a webinar about AAUW History and Evolution. We are in great company as AAUW members and supporters. <https://www.aauw.org/>

The AAUW State Convention will be held in Hastings this year on 26-27 April at the Confluence. There will be great speakers, food and fellowship, and the State Board will take care of their annual business. Hope to see you all there. Registration closes 31 March, so get your information into Renee Souza.

I am going to give you all a small preview of the 2024-25 budget. The Board is at the first draft stage, and will bring a budget for membership approval to the April Business Meeting. There are no anticipated dues increases (National, State or Local). We anticipate annual dues will remain at $103 total - $ 72 National, $ 9 State and $ 22 local.

I realize that folks join AAUW-Hastings for several reasons; support the national mission, work to build equity in Hastings community, listen to knowledgeable speakers, attend regular outings, meet cool people, and on and on. Given these differences, I want to remind you that the branch does in turn need things from all of you. Throughout the program year we ask for volunteers and other supports. Participation in absolutely everything is not expected (or possible), but the board does want everyone to find a time or place to support the Branch. It makes us all stronger and builds community. I am so happy that you are all members and am honored to be in community with you all.

Continue to do good work, care for each other, and stay well.

Diaries of Jane Doe: Historical perspectives on women's health in Dakota County

Caillean Magee got her Bachelor of Arts in Biochemistry at Saint Catherine University. She then went on to the University of San Francisco to earn her Masters in Museum Studies. Currently, she works at the Science Museum of Minnesota as a Visitor Experience Assistant Manager.

In her downtime, she enjoys playing video games with her partner, reading mystery novels, and crafting.

Caillean's presentation will take a deep dive into how women have been viewed in Western Medicine throughout time and what that meant for women in Dakota County in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. We will start with the ancient Greeks, move through Medieval and Renaissance Europe then arrive in Colonial America. We will discuss not only the tools and techniques available to medicine at those times but also the societal contexts and pressures that influenced how women were and are treated in Western Medicine.

Spring Social Gala

Get ready for a "funtastic" night out! AAUW Spring Social Gala is Monday, April 22 at The Public House.

Check in: 5:30PM. Dinner: 6:00PM. After the business meeting, Nancy Earhart Burt, AAUW Hastings member, will present a program about her famous relative, Amelia Earhart.

Cost: $35. Checks payable to THE HASTINGS PUBLIC HOUSE can be given to Jackie Rigelman at the March meeting. Deadline for reservations is April 15. Checks may be sent to Jackie Rigelman, 1000 Southview Drive, Hastings, MN.

Come and enjoy.

Membership

Kathy Palmer & Jackie Rigelman

Good news! At the March meeting, there will be a drawing for three AAUW National membership dues (value: $72 each) for 2024-2025. All members who paid membership dues for 2023-2024 will be included in the drawing. You do not need to be present at the March meeting to win. The drawing will be held this month because AAUW National will have their membership portal begin processing dues for 2024-2025 by mid-April.

The three lucky winners will only need to pay local dues-$22 and state dues-$9 for a total of $31. The winners will need to process paying dues through Carol Tobin or Renee Souza, Hastings Finance Co-chairs, so that required paperwork is completed.

Our Hastings Branch earned the AAUW National membership dues credits by participating in and signing up new members through the Shape the Future Program.

AAUW Hastings Branch to Host the 2024 State Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting, April 26-27, 2024, The Confluence Hotel
The theme is
Confluence = Inclusion, Collaboration, Empowerment

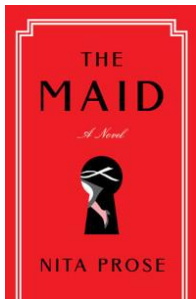

The Planning Committee for the Annual Meeting is making progress for the two-day event. There will be two speakers and a panel of Hastings' women entrepreneurs. The hotel is secured, the food has been chosen, and we are getting member bags ready. The Annual Meeting Booklet printing arrangements have been made. Silent Auction, Hastings items, are coming in. Oh yes, we have name badges on lanyards.

It's a party. It's a time to meet our AAUW peers from all over the State. We hope you will make plans to join in.

Registrations need to be post marked by March 31st, there is a registration form at the end of the TWIG.

Book Club

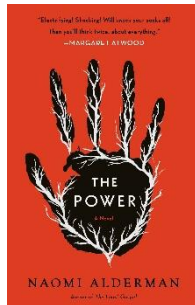

Shirley Tammen

On March 11th, the book club will be discussing The Maid by Nita Prose. A Clue-like, locked-room murder mystery and a heartwarming journey of the spirit, whose main character Molly Gray is not like everyone else. She struggles with social skills and misreads the intentions of others. Her gran used to interpret the world for her, codifying it into simple rules that Molly could live by. The Maid, reveals that all mysteries can be solved through connection to the human heart.

The Power by Naomi Alderman is the book club's April 8th selection. This is a science fiction novel with a central premise of women developing the ability to release electrical jolts from their fingers, which allows them to become the dominant sex. The Power won the Baileys Women's Prize for Fiction.

The book club meets the second Monday of the month at the Pleasant Hill Library at 1:30pm, all are welcome to join the discussions!

Gadabouts (Do It Yourself or Bring a Friend)

Cathy Wurzer will be in Red Wing talking about Women in Broadcasting. This event is sponsored by the AAUW Red Wing Area Branch in honor of Women's History Month. See the flyer at the end of the TWIG.

Our ERA Rally Day at the Capitol

The Red Wing bus picked us up at 9:00 AM at the old Green Mill and we were dropped off right in front of the Capitol. We took a photo of the group in front of the Capitol with our ERA YES signs.

Inside AAUW had a rally table with lots of informative brochures. There were many AAUW members and Branch representatives there. The program started at 10:00 AM with speakers, all giving their best reasons for Minnesota to pass the ERA bill before the legislature this year and get the ratification vote on the 2026 ballot. It is a long process.

Speakers for the event were: Rep. Kristin Bahner – Federal ERA Resolution Chief Author; Bernie Burnham – Minnesota AFL-CIO President; Rev. Kelli Clement, Unitarian Society of Minneapolis; Attorney

General Keith Ellison – MN AG; Rev. Dr. Meghan Gage-Finn, Westminster Presbyterian Church; Rep. Kaohly Vang Her, State ERA Chief Author; Sen. Mary Kunesch - State ERA Chief Author; Rep. Jamie Long, Minnesota House Majority Leader; Congresswoman Betty McCollum, CD4 U.S. House Member; Bishara Mohamed - Reviving Sisterhood Civic Engagement Manager; Sen. Sandy Pappas – Federal ERA Resolution Chief Author; Megan Peterson – Gender Justice Executive Director; Kat Rohn – OutFront Executive Director; Kelsey Waits – AAUW Minnesota Vice President of Public Policy; Cynthia Wilson – NAACP Minneapolis President; and 4 Minnetonka High School Student Leaders on behalf of The League of Women Voters MN.

Co-Sponsors of this event include: AAUW MN0; AAUW Minneapolis, Equal Means Equal, ERA Coalition, Gender Justice, Generation Ratify, Indivisible MN, Edina Indivisible, Indivisible St. Paul, Roseville Indivisible, Chaska Indivisible, Indivisible North Metro, St. Croix Valley Indivisible; Island of Discarded Women, Jewish Community Action, League of Women Voters, MN AFL-CIO, MN NOW, NAACP – Minneapolis, National Council of Jewish Women MN, OneMN.org, Outfront Minnesota, Reviving Sisterhood, Rock What You Got, Shattering Glass, Take Action MN, UnRestrict Minnesota, Women's Foundation of Minnesota, & Women's March MN.

After the speakers, the members visited the legislators' offices and left notes indicating that AAUW members wanted the ERA bill to be taken up and passed. Shane Hudella and Judy Seeberger are our representatives in the legislature.

The rally was over, we networked with other AAUW branches and we were back on the bus.

March ~ Recognizing and Celebrating Women's History Month

March is recognized as Women's History Month and is a time to honor, celebrate, and reflect on the multitude of important achievements contributed by women in various fields throughout time and history. Women like Marie Curie and Jane Goodall have made discoveries and advancements in fields such as chemistry, physics, medicine, and biology. Rosa Parks and Harriet Tubman played key roles in the fight for civil rights, social justice, and equality for all. Margaret Thatcher and Indira Ghandi served as political leaders as they shaped national and global policies. Women have truly made valuable contributions in nearly every field possible - touching our world with their knowledge, creativity, determination, and dedication!

Women's History Month provides us with the opportunity to celebrate the progress made towards gender equality as historically women's achievements were often overlooked. Men have historically been recognized more than women for their accomplishments. This disparity has existed for several reasons. Men have held more positions of power and influence in society than women throughout history which has resulted in their achievements being more well-known, documented, and celebrated. Gender stereotypes have played a role as men were often portrayed as being more competent as well as authoritative than women, leading to their accomplishments being more readily acknowledged. In addition, historically, women have been underrepresented in many fields of study, such as science, politics, and business, making it less likely for their achievements to receive the same level of recognition and visibility as those of men. Women have also faced numerous institutional barriers, such as limited access to education, employment opportunities, and leadership positions, which in turn have limited their ability to achieve recognition for their accomplishments. Last, cultural norms and expectations have played a role as men were expected to be the primary breadwinners and leaders, which resulted in their achievements being prioritized over those of women.

Despite the existing challenges, however, there has been progress made in more recent years towards recognizing and celebrating the achievements of women. An increased representation of women in various fields is helping to raise awareness about the contributions of women and challenge existing biases and stereotypes. Initiatives such as Women's History Month serves as a reminder of the ongoing struggle for gender equality and highlights the progress that has been made, as well as the work that still needs to be done. It provides an opportunity to educate people about the challenges women have faced and continue to face, and to inspire future generations to strive for a more equitable society in which to live. March is the month designated to recognizing the trailblazers who paved the way for future generations and rectifies this imbalance as it shines a bright spotlight on the stories and accomplishments of women around the world. Overall, Women's History Month is necessary to ensure that women's voices, experiences, and contributions are acknowledged, celebrated, and remembered.

There are numerous ways to celebrate Women's History Month! You can choose to learn about influential women in history by discovering the stories of women who have made significant contributions to various fields of study and professions. You can attend local initiatives and events throughout the month hosted by organizations to highlight women's achievements or important issues related to gender equality. You are also able to support women-owned businesses as a means to advance female entrepreneurs within your own community. In addition, you can consider volunteering for women's organizations that support women's rights and empowerment. Last, consider sharing the stories and accomplishments of women on social media and educating, as well as advocating, for gender equality in our daily lives.

Women have made important contributions in virtually every field imaginable - so let's celebrate!

Let's celebrate Women's History Month by honoring the accomplishments of women, promoting gender equality and empowerment, and raising an increased awareness about the importance of women's contributions in today's society.

Resources:

<https://www.womenshistory.org> - National Women's History Museum website - offers various articles, exhibits, and resources highlighting women's contributions throughout history.

<https://womenshistory.si.edu> - Smithsonian American Women's History Museum - experience a digital exhibition showcasing the accomplishments of five women whose stories were missing from the world around us.

Dakota County Library - Be sure to visit your local library for book displays and host events centered around women's history during the month of March.

Online bookstores such as Amazon or Barnes and Nobles - Take note of online curated lists of books celebrating women's achievements and experiences.

AAUW Hastings Branch announces scholarships for the 2024 National Conference for College Women Student Leaders!

May 30– June 1

➤ Apply for a scholarship!

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) Hastings Branch announces this exciting opportunity for Hastings-area female sophomore or junior college students to attend the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders aka NCCWSL. The scholarships cover the cost of registration, room, board and flight! The conference is held in the DC Metro Area.

- You will join hundreds of college women from around the country for leadership training, inspiration, incredible speakers, awardees and networking. NCCWSL offers skill-building workshops and educational panels that are designed to challenge and inspire you to make an impact on your campus and in your community long after you leave the conference. This year's event will include sessions on career development, mentorship, financial literacy, racial-justice activism and more. Participants will have an opportunity to explore post-graduate programs, careers in a variety of disciplines and other opportunities for their future. Nearly 500 colleges from 48 states have sent campus leaders to NCCWSL.

Workshops are divided among the following leadership objectives.

- Leadership development: Develop and strengthen a leadership narrative through voice, skill set, and mind-set.
- Professional development: Build a professional tool kit for postgraduate life.
- Activism: Know the how, why, and when to take action.
- Women's issues: Gain a better understanding of issues and policies affecting women and of AAUW's role in empowering women.
- Identity and diversity: Own one's personal identity and role in increasing and supporting diverse voices.

The deadline for completed applications is Thursday, March 15, 2024.
